WINE EXPERIENCE IN THE VAL D'ELSA

Wine has been a long tradition in Tuscany and vineyards are essential to its landscape. Around the medieval city of San Gimignano a local white grape variety has been cultivated since the Middle Age and white wines here are a speciality in the region of reds.

In a half-day tour with sommelier Fabio (a local wine expert) you will visit a selected boutique winery, see the cellar and enjoy their wines with detailed explanations. Then you will make a stop in the picturesque village of San Gimignano and walk the stone streets within the city walls. You can choose to end the day with a fine dining experience in a selected restaurant in the area.

Fabio Ceccarelli - Sommelier

Born and raised in Tuscany, I've always been into food and wine and decided to become a sommelier. In a few years, I transformed my passion into a job.

I have several professional partnerships. I work with a part-time contract to promote Italian wines at the Airport of Florence's main shop. I use to hold lessons about wine and wine pairing to Italian students in Tuscany. I teach "Wines of Italy" to foreign students at an International Institute in Florence. I also cooperate with tour operators to create wine tours in Tuscany.

I am a contributor to Sommelier Toscana magazine and I am a regional editor of the annual wine book VITAE (published by the Italian Sommelier Association). I use to taste professionally 1000 wines per year.

I also obtained the Level 3 Award in Wines of the WSET and the suitability award to become an extra-virgin olive oil taster.
