THE RESORT - THE UNIQUE EXPERIENCE OF A VILLAGE OF LIGHT

The hotel was born from the modernization of an ancient Benedictine monastery and incorporates the features of the Roman villa which, in the flourishing moment of the Empire, characterized the appearance of the Sicilian countryside, with spectacular gardens, courtyards and flowered terraces.

In the main entrance lane intersect the patios that lead to the panoramic terraces, where you can relax sipping a glass of excellent Sicilian wine.

The imposing staircase leads to the courtyard, the heart of the hotel where the splendid swimming pool with a central olive tree and hydromassage jets opens, a perfect stage for events, shows, music entertainment, classical and theatrical pieces.

FOOD EXPERIENCE

THE SICILIAN TRADITION AT TABLE: FRESH, GOOD AND SIMPLE

The new kitchen of Borgo di Luce I Monasteri takes its inspiration from the rich Sicilian tradition. Far from uniform dishes who has studied menus aimed at enhancing the gastronomic riches of the territory, in full respect of the "Fresh, Italian and Simple" philosophy.

Seasonal ingredients, chosen by local producers, offer dishes capable of enhancing aromas and flavors, without resorting to excessive processing and are all based on raw materials of the island. Comprised by fresh fish from the coast and traditional Sicilian recipes, for dishes that match the many island wines kept in the well-stocked cellar.

THE GOLF COURSE - PLAY GOLF AMONG THE PERFUMES OF THE MEDITERRANEAN

An extensive renovation project involved the 18-hole par 71 golf course, whose course stretches across the Mediterranean landscape, in a plantation of 86 hectares of orange and lemon trees. A paradise for playing this sport and for relaxing the mind, getting lost in the expanses of the greenery.

The course covers an area of 6520 meters and was designed by the architects David Mezzacane, president of the Italian Association of Golf Course Architects, and Vincenzo Mazzacane. The 6 par 4 holes have been created inside a prickly pear plantation. The natural local ibilee-limestone hills whiten the path in the holes two, three and four.

In addition to being a path of incredible beauty, the resort's 18-hole golf course enjoys all the facilities necessary to make it a real reference point for international golf in Sicily, hosting competitions and championships, but also tailor-made golf clinics thanks to the golf expertise of the MIRA Hotels & Resorts, which includes in its portfolio other golf resorts in Italy.

The PICCIOLO GOLF CLUB

SICILY'S FIRST EVER 18-HOLE GOLF COURSE.

On the slopes of Mount Etna, in an unrivalled location, the Il Picciolo Golf Club course is the first 18-hole, 72-par course built in Sicily.

Developed in 1989 by the renowned architect Luigi Rota Caremoli, this superb course with holes fashioned from the characteristic lava stone of Mount Etna, covers 5,870 metres, with a driving range, putting and pitching green.

The Club was established in 1989 with the first golf course in Sicily created by the renowned architect Luigi Rota Caremoli, the only architect in Italy to be a member of the Association of British Golf Course Architects.

Luigi Rota Caremoli made the most of the 44 hectares of hilly terrain, designing technical obstacles to great effect, to the extent that the course appears entirely natural.

The course has had the honour of hosting 5 open championships: for three consecutive years, from 1995 to 1997, it hosted the Sicilian Ladies Italian Open; in 2010 it hosted a stage of the European Senior Open and in 2011 the Italian stage of the Sicilian Ladies Italian Open.
