Circolo Golf Venezia - The Venice golf course

A piece of history in the Italian golf

The Venetian Golf Club can rightfully claim the title of eldest club in the region and among the oldest ones in Italy. Its foundation and opening date as far back as 1928 and 1930, respectively, with an entire week of competitions and celebrations organized by its first 25 members belonging to the noble families of the Venetian aristocracy.

Under the lead of Scottish architect Cruikshank of Maxwell M. Hart of Glasgow, the works begun in 1928, around an old Austrian fortification built for the defense of Venice, army quarters and horse stables – that make up the skeleton of today's Club House. The architect designed the first 9 holes, finally providing Venice with an intriguing PAR 35 course.

Hall of fame of international golf

Champions such as Arnold Palmer, Tony Jacklin, Severiano Ballesteros, Johnny Miller, Sam Torrance, Lee Trevino, Costantino Rocca, Baldovino Dassù, Eamonn Darcy, and more recently, Edoardo and Francesco Molinari and Matteo Manassero, have stepped the Lido's links. The charm of the Venetian course lies in the perfect alliance between natural beauties and technical difficulties that make it one of the best courses in Italy. In 2012, it ranked at the eighth position of the special "Top Ten" chart of the best Italian courses drawn each year by Golf Digest.

Ca' della Nave Golf Club

The first of the three golf courses designed in Italy in the late 80s by the famous US Golf Champion Arnold Palmer, well-known designer of golf courses in the world, inspired by the nearby Venice spreading the 27 holes of water obstacles.

Arnold Palmer created a top-level course, both in the technical and aesthetic result, giving birth to an 18-hole "champion" par 72 of 6350 meters and to an "executive" of 9 holes.

The large bunkers scattered along the fairways and in defense of large and fast greens, are harmoniously inserted between the vegetation and the water in the wide horizons of a technical and suggestive path.

Peculiarity of the field is given by the abundance of water obstacles created with artificial lakes that affect as many as 12 of the 18 holes, the consistent presence of large bunkers American, from the technical aspects and the pleasantness of the surrounding landscape that count it among the best competition fields made in Italy.

Ca' Sagredo Hotel

The sheer beauty of Ca' Sagredo Hotel is weep-with-joy wondrous. As you pull up alongside the Grand Canal, you'll need to pinch yourself and again when you step inside.

The 15th century Palace has been declared a National Monument and still preserves the untouched beauty of an ancient noble Residence. It oozes romance while the opulently frescoed ballroom and lounge echoes with epic events of the past.

Just gliding up the imposing marble staircase; whilst resisting a tap on a cherub's peachy cheek, feels positively regal.

Ca' Sagredo's views of the canal life and the historical Rialto Market opposite are storybook scenes of old.

Art lovers be warned: there are so many treasures here, it's easy to forget the outside world. But there's always the hotel's panoramic waterside L'Alcova restaurant with terrace over the Grand Canal to remind you, serving dishes that are a celebration of Italy on a plate.

The Lagoon - Culture and History around Venice

A day cruise to discover the lagoon, its history and culture.

Verona and its wines : from Bardolino to Valpolicella

Just like for art and landscapes, Italy has a lot to present. Verona is certainly the most representative Italian wine city, partly because for over 50 years it hosts the international fair of Italian wines and especially to be the Italian representative at Great Wine Capitals, the event that brings together the most representative capitals in the world of wine. In short, for those who love wine Verona is a must and for this reason we have included it among the activities for our guests.

Itinerary

The excursion starts in the town of Bardolino, on the hills east of Lake Garda, with the tasting of local wines and EVO oil. The visit will take place in one of the most famous wineries and active for years in the hospitality of wine lovers from all over the world.

In the afternoon we will visit the city of Verona on a classic tour, accompanied by a local expert guide of history. The tour will be in English.

Late in the afternoon, we move to one of the most beloved wine areas in the world. We visit a winery in the Valpolicella doc, and we pair our dinner with the local wines. Because the best way to enjoy Italian wines is by pairing them with local food, and we want our guests to enjoy cuisine and wine the way we do.

Food and Wine experience

Valpolicella region does not need presentation. Its wines are known worldwide. And Amarone della Valpolicella plays the role of the king in the wide range of Italian wines.

Our local sommelier will take you to visit a selected winery and explore the sensations that the wines reveal according to the cru, the blend, and the vintage. Each wine is paired with locally produced appetizers to enhance flavor notes and delight your palate.

Thanks to the guided tastings, you will explore the varied flavors of different wines and be impressed by wines' peculiarities and styles, even within a limited distance. Italy offers very different landscapes, climates, and wines in a single region. You might be surprised by the incredible variety you can enjoy

A MEAL WITH PAIRING

For centuries wine has been the unique beverage in south Europe, besides water. Pairing food and wine is the essential of eno-gastronomy in Italy. Veneto region displays different territories: mountains, sea, lakes, many rivers. Any kind of food is to find there. Also, seasons play a huge role in the food you may find on your plates. And the wines you can pair to those plates are another unmissable offer! Still, white wines, slightly aromatic bubbles, important red wines find their best pairings with pasta, vegetables, fish, and meat.

Not to forget the peculiar dessert wines such as Recioto della Valpolicella which is supposed to be the ancestor of Amarone, when dry wines were not in vogue. Enjoy!
