CHAMPIONSHIP SICILIAN LINKS

Test your game at our distinguished championship golf courses, shaped by renowned architect Kyle Phillips. Seamlessly blending with the Sicilian coastal landscape, each hole presents a gorgeous view of the Mediterranean Sea. The two 18-hole courses highlight Phillips' aptitude for engaging, high-quality design.

The West Course, a previous host to the Sicilian and European tour events, and the East Course, acknowledged by Today's Golfer as one of the best in Italy and as one of Europe's finest. Whether you're an established golfer or a beginner keen to refine your skills on our nine hole Par 3, Verdura's courses offer a distinctive golfing experience, pairing challenge with scenic grandeur.

BORGIO DI LUCE - I Monasteri Golf Resort & SPA

THE GOLF COURSE - PLAY GOLF AMONG THE PERFUMES OF THE MEDITERRANEAN

An extensive renovation project involved the 18-hole par 71 golf course, whose course stretches across the Mediterranean landscape, in a plantation of 86 hectares of orange and lemon trees. A paradise for playing this sport and for relaxing the mind, getting lost in the expanses of the greenery.

The course covers an area of 6520 meters and was designed by the architects David Mezzacane, president of the Italian Association of Golf Course Architects, and Vincenzo Mazzacane.

The 6 par 4 holes have been created inside a prickly pear plantation.

The natural local iblee-limestone hills whiten the path in the holes two, three and four.

In addition to being a path of incredible beauty, the resort's 18-hole golf course enjoys all the facilities necessary to make it a real reference point for international golf in Sicily, hosting competitions and championships.

The PICCIOLO GOLF CLUB

SICILY'S FIRST EVER 18-HOLE GOLF COURSE.

On the slopes of Mount Etna, in an unrivalled location, the Il Picciolo Golf Club course is the first 18-hole, 72-par course built in Sicily.

Developed in 1989 by the renowned architect Luigi Rota Caremoli, this superb course with holes fashioned from the characteristic lava stone of Mount Etna, covers 5,870 metres, with a driving range, putting and pitching green.

The Club was established in 1989 with the first golf course in Sicily created by the renowned architect Luigi Rota Caremoli, the only architect in Italy to be a member of the Association of British Golf Course Architects.

Luigi Rota Caremoli made the most of the 44 hectares of hilly terrain, designing technical obstacles to great effect, to the extent that the course appears entirely natural.

The course has had the honour of hosting 5 open championships: for three consecutive years, from 1995 to 1997, it hosted the Sicilian Ladies Italian Open; in 2010 it hosted a stage of the European Senior Open and in 2011 the Italian stage of the Sicilian Ladies Italian Open.

Unforgettable Experience in Palermo

Immerse yourself in the enchantment of Palermo with a day dedicated to discovering its historical and cultural treasures.

Start with a guided tour that will lead you through the lively streets of the city, revealing its epic history and breathtaking architecture.

Discover the majestic Norman palaces, admire the grandeur of the Palermo Cathedral, and wander through vibrant markets where colors and aromas create a unique atmosphere. This day will give you an authentic taste of Palermo's vibrant soul, preparing you for an experience that seamlessly blends culture, history, and natural beauty with your golf journey in Sicily.

MOUNT ETNA : A LIVING VOLCANO.

If you want to live the experience of reaching the summit of the highest active volcano in Europe, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, we provide expert guidance of the territory that will lead you through a path to the lunar-like landscape. Once at the summit you can gaze out over the horizon, until you see, on clear days, the Aeolian Islands and the island of Malta.

HYSTORICAL SYRACUSE

Guided tour of the Archaeological Park and the Ortigia Island: the Temple of Apollo, the Archimedes Square, the ancient quarter "Giudecca", the Duomo Square, the Cathedral of Siracusa, the Fountain of Arethusa.

Syracuse is situated on the south-eastern coast of the island, Syracuse has a thousand-year history: it is one of the largest cities of the classical age.

It was the homeland of the mathematician Archimedes, who put himself at the head of his defense during the siege of the Romans in 212 B.C. Syracuse was for centuries the capital city of Sicily, until the conquest by the Arabs, occurred in 878.

Characterized by huge historical, architectural and landscape riches, the city of Syracuse was declared by UNESCO in 2005, together with the Necropoli Rupestri di Pantalica, a World Heritage Site.

Sicilian Delights: Enchanting Wines

Sicilian wines are celebrated for their excellence, benefiting from the favorable climate and rich volcanic soil of Mount Etna. Wineries nestled on the slopes of this majestic volcano offer a unique tasting experience, showcasing indigenous grape varieties such as Nerello Mascalese and Carricante at their finest.

Etna wines are renowned for their complexity and freshness, featuring aromas of red fruits, aromatic herbs, and volcanic minerals that reflect the unique terroir.

Winery tours allow visitors to discover the artisanal production process and enjoy award-winning wines, set against the breathtaking backdrop of terraced vineyards on Europe's tallest active volcano

ISOLE EOLIE / LIPARI
(full day guided tour)

The Aeolian Islands, a volcanic archipelago located in the Tyrrhenian Sea north of Sicily, are a captivating tourist destination known for their natural beauty and historical heritage. Comprising seven main islands : Lipari, Salina, Vulcano, Stromboli, Filicudi, Alicudi, and Panarea. They offer spectacular landscapes featuring active volcanoes, crystal clear waters, and black sand beaches. Lipari is the largest and most frequented, while Stromboli is famous for its continuous volcanic activity. The local cuisine, rich in fresh seafood and typical products, adds further charm to this destination.
